

Canada at Energy Storage Europe 2019

Conference and Exhibition

March 12 - 14, 2019

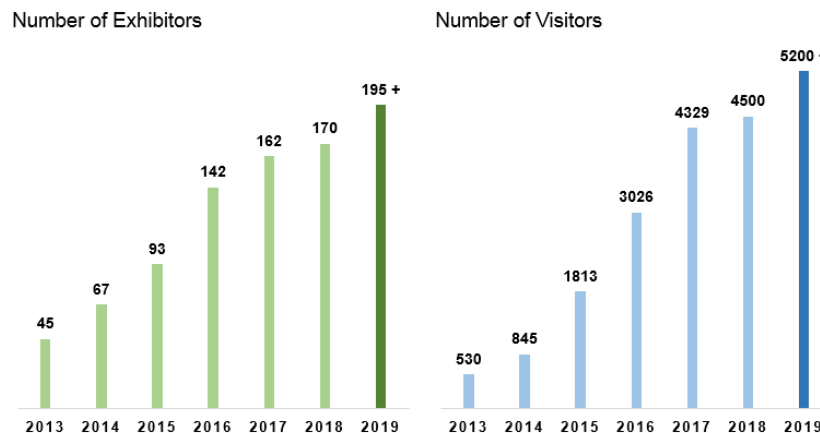

Düsseldorf, Germany

The world of energy storage is growing. From the very beginning, the Energy Storage Expo & Conference has linked together the most visionary players in the market. It has also actively helped creating the structures, which enforce the interests of the industry. Today, it is the leading event of its kind. 170 exhibitors and over 4,500 visitors attended Energy Storage Europe 2018. And a renewed growth push is expected for 2019. This is a business opportunity you should not miss out on!

No other event is as focused on the issue of energy storage. You can be sure to attract the full attention of a high-class clientele and to encounter your future business partners personally. This means a very efficient and visible presence even for smaller companies – without the risk of being overshadowed by bigger players.
